Mission, Goals and graduate attributes

1

Program Mission:

- To provide the market with skilled graduates who are dedicated to improve teaching process and conduct research in research centers and industry.

2

Program Goals:

- Developing the study plan of bachelor programs by providing the market with high quality lectures, scientists, and researchers in different areas of educational and industrial field.
- Improving the mathematical and physical skills of graduated students and solving problems
- Introduce students to use advanced laboratories with new and modern techniques related with his specialist and focused to the labor market requirements.

3

Graduate Attributes:

- Graduated students offers a high qualification in research experience and very good level in educational performance.