

4- Horses Unit:

In order to improve the performance of training programs for university students in this unit, a new horse barn was established to fulfill the needs of the university in addition to the related enterprises and public services.

Currently, the unit contains four mare horses, two female and one male pony, and a female donkey in addition to several mares from the stalls of the former teacher's college. The station is working to obtain Arabic and foreign mares with known pedigree.