

1. Students' visit coordination.

Pre-university students of all stages (primary - medium – high school) are hosted in an educational extension program to be aware of the practical side of what they learn at schools.

The visit is scheduled as follows:

Time	Program
8:30	Reception and a brief induction program about the station
8:45	Breakfast
9:00	Visit cows farm including cow carrels, milking parlor unit, and dairy factory
9.30	Visit Wildlife unit
9.45	Visit sheep unit including Sheep pens, goat pens, goat milking parlor unit
10:00	Visit greenhouses unit
10:15	Visit the nursery unit
10:30	Visit of hydroponic unit
10:40	Visit of automated seeding unit
10:50	Visit of the apiary unit
11:00	Visit the technical and engineering affairs department including the meteorological station and engineering workshops)
11:15	conclusion of the visit

During the visit, an introduction of the contents of different departments and is given including its equipment that serves the university colleges in addition to its role in conducting research and students' training.

Furthermore, the visiting students are informed about the importance of agriculture and livestock in providing human needs in addition to the importance of preserving agricultural and animal resources from extinction.