

1. Program Mission:

Providing excellent knowledge aimed to graduating students in the field of mathematics and its applications capable of meeting the needs of development in the Kingdom, and enriching knowledge through education, scientific research, innovation and optimal use of technology.

2. Program Goals:

- To enrich the knowledge in branch(es) of Mathematics that prepare the learner as an academician in higher education
- To produce Ph.D. graduates who can become the leaders in the state and the nation's educational community concerning the teaching of mathematics appropriate for the national demands.
- To develop self-sufficient and innovative researchers capable of pursuing professional advancement opportunities in relation with different disciplines of mathematics.