

Mission:

To provide students with increased depth in pure and applied mathematics that better qualifies them for their higher studies and taking post in the labor market.

Goals:

- To provide advanced concepts and techniques in pure and applied mathematics.
- To train students to conduct scientific research in mathematics and its applications.
- To provide students with the written and oral communication skills that a researcher in mathematics must possess.
- To contribute to achieving effective community engagement.