

Histology

Course Title:	Histology
Course Duration:	30 Weeks
Course Units:	4 credit hours - Yearly System

Mode of Teaching	Course Contents	General Objectives
References	Textbook	Evaluation

I. General Objectives:

On successful completion of the course, the student should be able to:

1. Know the normal structure of the basic tissues, organs and systems of the human body.
2. Identify histological sections made through these tissues, organs and systems.

II. Course Contents:

1. General Histology:
It includes the structure of the basic tissues of the human body.
2. Special Histology:
It includes the structure of the organs of different systems of the human body.

III. Mode of Teaching:

1. Lectures: one/week for each of the two groups of students.
2. Laboratory: one/week for each of the three groups of students

3. Tutorials

VI. Evaluation:

- Continuous assessment: 40%
- Final exam: 60%
- Total: 100%

Two quizzes (10 % each), midyear exam (20 %) and final exam (60 %).

V. Textbook:

1. Basic Histology, Text and Atlas by Junqueira and Carneiro or Textbook and Colour Atlas of Microanatomy, by Dr. M. Al Motabagani.
2. A Book of Practical Histology (Vol. 1&2), by the same author.

VI. Reference:

- Ham's Histology.