

Group III

Clinical Pharmacology    Anesthesia    Radiology    Emergency Medicine

Subjects and Duration

The students are split into two batches with one batch entering the rotation through Medicine and Allied Specialties for 6 months while the other batch goes through the Surgical Subjects rotation. The batches cross over in the second semester.

1. Surgical subspecialties	6 weeks
a. Orthopaedics	3 weeks
b. Neurosurgery	1.5 weeks
c. Urology	1.5 weeks
2. ENT	3 weeks
3. Ophthalmology	3 weeks
4. Clinical pharmacology	3 weeks
5. Anaesthesia	1 week
6. Radiology	1 week
7. Emergency Medicine	1 week

The rotation will be divided into three groups as follows:

- Group I                      Surgical Specialties
- Group II                     ENT and Ophthalmology
- Group III                    Clinical pharmacology, Anaesthesia, Emergency Medicine, Radiology