

Otorhinolarygology

Course Title: Otorhinolarygology

Course Designation: MDOL 505

Computer Number: 0412-505

Course Duration: 3 weeks clinical clerkship

Course Units: 3 credit hours

Prerequisites: Surgery - I

Objectives Course Content Educational Strategies Evaluation

Recommended Textbooks

Objectives:

At the end of the course, the student will be able to:

- Demonstrate proficiency in examining and treating a patient with common ENT problems and be able to handle ENT emergencies.
- Detect, diagnose and manage communicable ENT diseases.
- Develop interest in ENT specialty

Course Content:

Lectures

- Diseases of the ear
- Diseases of the nose and the paranasal sinuses
- Diseases of the pharynx
- Audiology
- Diseases of the larynx
- Speech therapy

Clinical Attachment

- OPD
- Bedside teaching
- Tutorial ward round
- Physical examination exercises

ENT Rounds Schedule

	1st week	2nd week	3rd week
Saturday	Orientation Symptoms of ear	ENT Radiology	ENT Presentation
Sunday	Symptoms of nose	Outpatient clinic at Health Centre	Outpatient clinic at Health Centre
Monday	Symptoms of pharynx & larynx	ENT Audiology	ENT slides
Tuesday	Outpatient clinic at Health Centre	Outpatient clinic at Health Centre	Outpatient clinic at Health Centre
Wednesday	ENT history & examination	Simulation Lab.	ENT clinical examination

Educational Strategies:

Formal lectures, clinical OPD sessions, bedside teaching and tutorials.

Evaluation:

- | | |
|--|-----|
| 1. Continuous assessment during clinical rounds: | 20% |
| 2. Clinical examination at the end of clinical rounds: | 40% |
| 3. MCQ examination at the semester end: | 40% |

Recommended Textbooks:

- Diseases of the ear, nose and throat, Hall and Colman
- Textbook of otorhinolaryngology: Dewees and Sauder.