

Guidance and Counseling –Graduate Certificate

College of Education

King Faisal University

Program Name	Guidance and Counseling –Graduate Certificate
---------------------	---

1. Introduction

The program prepares educators in public and private schools to be active councilors. In addition, the program improves current councilors' knowledge and skills.

2. Program Information

Program Name	Guidance and Counseling –Graduate Certificate
College	College of Education
Department	Education and Psychology Department
Track	Guidance and Counseling
Level	Postgraduate
Degree	Postgraduate Diploma
Years of Study	One year
Credit Hours	27
Language

3. Admission Requirements

Being accepted to the program require the fulfillment of all the requirements of the unified regulations for postgraduate studies in Saudi universities. Moreover, the department have its requirements.

- The applicant should hold a bachelor degree in : Psychology or Sinology or relevant major from accredited university.
- Have a GPA 3 out of 5
- Pass a committee interview
- Should not be currently accepted to another program
- Applicant may have a wave from the first requirement if he/she has been working as a councilor at K-12 for at least three years.